

Committee Starts D.C. Strike Negotiations

An eight-member committee, representing both sides in the current dispute between Daly City and municipal employees, began preliminary negotiations in closed session Sunday.

The first meeting of the recently formed body was held on "neutral ground" at the North San Mateo County Sanitation District Offices, off Lake Merced Avenue in Daly City, and lasted some four hours.

Although the City Council and representatives of Local 919, State, County and Municipal Employees, decided last Saturday to take the negotiations "out of the public spotlight" and move behind closed doors, the items for discussions by the committee were expected to include wages, hours of work and other fringe benefits.

Results of the talks will be brought before a study session of the council Friday, but regardless of the outcome, no action is expected until the council's regularly scheduled meeting Monday night.

Saturday, the council met in a special session with local business representative Frank Gillis and several other union members at the First National Bank of Daly City, 6600 Mission Street.

Councilman Edward J. Dennis opened the meeting with a blast at Gillis for allegedly giving false information regarding the status of the strike to a union circulated newspaper.

Dennis said "this disturbs me very much... I don't like these misstatements appearing in the paper."

Before Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett stepped in to cool it ("You folks understand both these men are strong union people") Gillis offered to continue the "personality battle" with Dennis "if you want it."

Dennis, longtime president of the Milk Drivers and Dairy Employees Union, was partly responsible for both groups seeking out a meeting place on neutral ground. Both Gillis and Dennis have vowed not to cross any picket lines or hold any meetings behind a picket line.

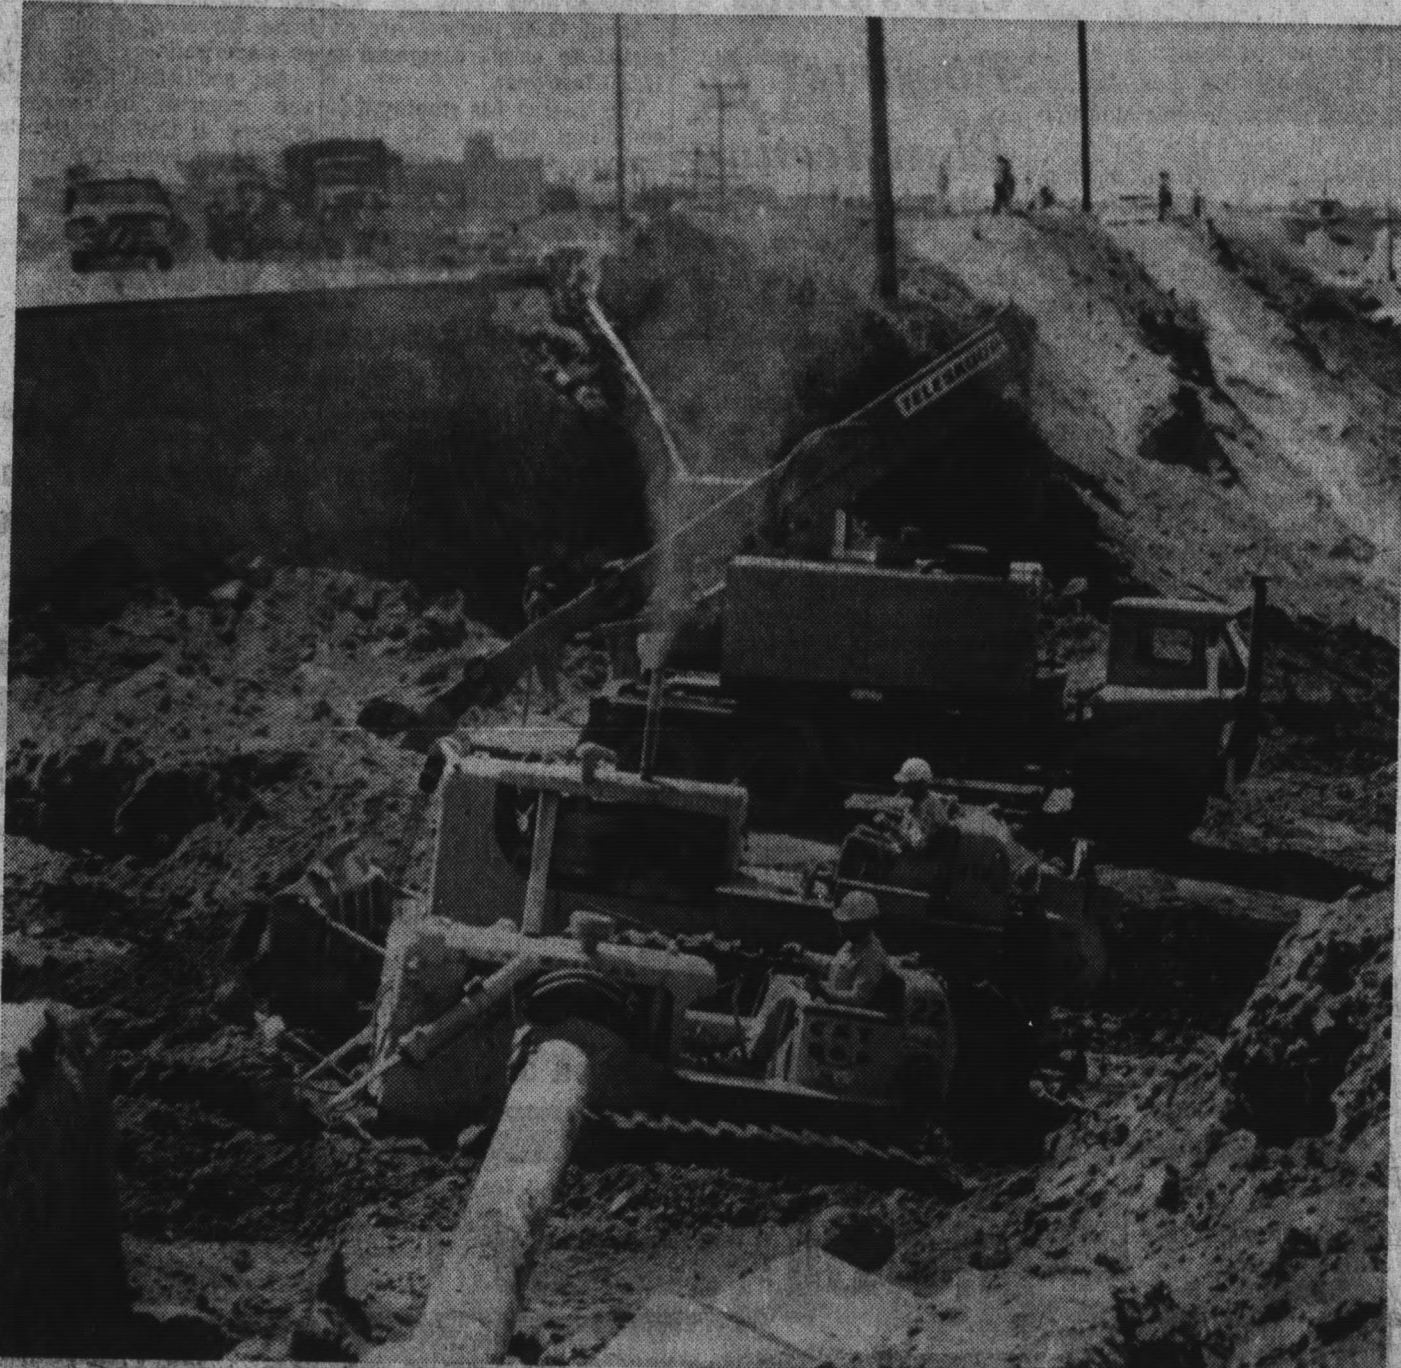

The outburst between the two sides were also credited with quickly moving the council and Gillis towards formation of the committee.

"More could be accomplished by each side appointing a committee to sit and discuss problems informally," Gillis suggested.

After a brief recess, in which the council and staff held an open huddle, Mayor Lycett appointed Councilmen Anthony Giammona and Frank Pacelli, along with city attorney Albert Polonsky and city manager Edward Frank to represent the city. The local named Gillis, Tom Jones (Gillis' assistant), local president Bob Evans and employee Jerry Judge.

Meanwhile, San Mateo County's first municipal employees strike enters its third week today.

Heavy Equipment Putting the Road Back

ARMY OF HEAVY EQUIPMENT attacks tons of sand and debris which swept down a Daly City hillside last week threatening several homes on Larchmont Street some 300 feet below. Another 10 feet of the thoroughfare dropped away Sunday. What triggered the massive slide is still being investigated by engineers. No one was injured in the near-disaster, however, some homes below suffered damage from mud and water. (Post Photo)

AROUND-THE-CLOCK WORK

New Eastmoor Cave-in; Lewkowitz Drops Lawsuit

By FRANK LAPIERRE

Another section of Eastmoor Avenue, scene of a major earthslide last week, toppled into the huge cavity gouged out by earthmoving equipment Sunday.

The latest cave-in involved about ten feet more of Eastmoor Avenue and was less spectacular than last week's near-disaster when tons of sand and debris slid down the steep hill and threatened six homes, forcing evacuation of 25 persons.

What concerns many persons connected with the repair project today is the main north-south Pacific Telephone communications link which passes alongside the site. Some persons think the concrete tunnel housing the phone equipment is all that is holding the remainder of the hill in place. A rainstorm could wreak havoc in the area, officials fear.

Heavy equipment has been working almost around-the-clock on orders of developer

Henry Doelger to repair the roadway. Doelger had begun construction of several view apartments on the steep hillside and was grading a new road through the site when the cave-in hit. The cause is still under investigation and costs of repairing the road may exceed $200,000, one official predicted.

That $1 million damage suit filed by a Daly City service station owner against the city and the Doelger Corporation in the wake of a huge earthslide on Eastmoor Avenue has been dropped.

Charles J. Lewkowitz, son of Daly City Treasurer Joseph Lewkowitz, confirmed rumors Tuesday morning that the matter would not be pursued further. (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

A Nomination as 'Eyesore'

SOME IRATE Pacifica residents have nominated the city's "Linda Mar Trunk Line Sewer" sign in front of the historic Sanchez Adobe for "eyesore of the year" honors. "Only the city could get away with erecting an eyesore in front of a county historical monument and leaving it there for months," one resident of the area commented this week. (Post Photo)

Next Tuesday Vacation to End For Area Pupils

By DON GRIERSON

Summer vacation will officially end for more than 40,000 elementary and high school students in the North County this week, with registration at most of the schools already under way and classes scheduled to begin next Tuesday.

The Jefferson Union High School District in Daly City and Pacifica is taking registration appointments by telephone, and urging students to "pre-register" prior to Tuesday's class openings.

The district will open the new Serramonte School to students for the first time this year, with 500 to 600 youngsters expected to register.

An over-all increase from last year's 6,800 students to 7,500 to 8,000 this year is expected districtwide, officials said, and 56 new teachers have been hired to accommodate the increase.

Officials of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City, Colma and Broadmoor expect little increase over last year's student enrollment of 10,000 due to a "stabilization" of the area's population.

Registration and orientation for students, parents and teachers is going on this week, with classes scheduled to begin Tuesday.

The district has employed 60 new teachers this year, though many of them are replacements for outgoing teachers, according to Assistant Supt. Dr. Vincent Stratton.

The special program for educationally handicapped children has been expanded, and the administration is negotiating contracts to hire three additional teachers for special students.

A new class for special students will be instituted at the Colma K-6 School, Dr. Stratton said.

The district is experiencing financial difficulties due to failure of a tax increase election last month, and bus transportation for students will be curtailed somewhat this year, though details of the transportation cuts have not been worked out, administration spokesmen said.

Two new schools, Crespi Elementary School and the Andres F. Oddstad School, will open their doors for the first time in Pacifica this year bringing the total number of schools in the Laguna Salada elementary district to 15.

Officials said approximately 9,750 students are expected this year, compared with last year's enrollment of 9,152.

The two new schools will accommodate approximately 1,100 (Please See Page 2, Column 6)

Two Injured Climbed For Aid in Fatal

Two of the three Bay Area residents who survived a 380 foot plunge over a coastal cliff near Monterey Sunday climbed the sheer cliff to seek help, the Highway Patrol in Monterey said.

A Daly City resident, Bobetta Bills, 23, of 471 Southgate Avenue, was died when patrolmen arrived at the scene, about 16 miles south of Carmel, near the Bixby Creek Bridge.

Hospitalized with major injuries were Mark W. Vannucci, 19, of 2701 Hallmark Drive, Belmont, and Brad Lee Sexton, 19, 4533 Mission Street, San Francisco.

A Pacifican, Richard D. Arena, 22, of 495 Firecrest, suffered less serious injuries, the Highway Patrol said.

Patrolmen said the car was northbound on Highway 1, when it went out of control on a curve, swerved across the road, struck the north-end guardrail and ran off the road and went over the side.

All of the occupants were ejected as the car plunged to within 25 feet of the beach below.

The Bills body was found about 50 feet above the car, a spokesman for the Highway Patrol said.

Leg Tangled In Bike Drive

A San Bruno youth was injured Friday afternoon when his leg became entangled in the drive mechanism of a "mini-bike" on Crestmoor Drive, police reported.

Michael E. Flanagan, 13, of 2425 Crestmoor, was admitted for treatment of foot and leg injuries at Peninsula Hospital after the accident occurred near the intersection of Crestmoor and Hamilton Avenue about 3:45 p.m.

Housing Probe Facts to Jury

Alleged irregularities involving the San Mateo County Housing Authority will be submitted to the County Grand Jury at its next meeting, District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson said Tuesday.

Sorenson's findings are contained in a report on the Housing Authority investigation prepared by County Manager E. R. Stallings for submission to the Board of Supervisors Tuesday afternoon.

Stallings' report, requested by the board, states, however, that some exceptions, "it appears evident that... the Housing Authority has carried out its responsibilities in keeping with the needs of the community and in the best interests of the county as a whole."

Sorenson says in his report that his investigation has been concerned only with "those allegations which involve possible violations of penal laws or misconduct in office."

His investigation shows, the district attorney states, that Gaston Periat Sr., San Mateo automobile dealer and a member of the Housing Authority board of commissioners, "violated these provisions of law which prohibit a housing commissioner from having a private interest in a contract with the public board or commission of which he is a member."

Periat's action in leasing and selling vehicles to the Housing Authority "has violated the conflict of interest provisions of the Government Code and of the Health and Safety Code," Sorenson says in his report.

However, he adds, the scope of the investigation did not attempt to include a determination as to whether the public suffered any pecuniary loss as a result.

Sorenson reported that the allegation that Floyd Altha, maintenance superintendent for the Housing Authority, illegally conducted a private business on the premises of the Midway Village project of the Authority (Please See Page 2, Column 1)

Times-Post Grid Contest Starting

The Post-Times thirteenth annual Football Contest starts next week, with cash prizes of up to $550 awaiting readers.

Each week $50 will be offered for the contestant who can correctly pick the results of 15 collegiate and professional football games.

If there is no weekly winner, the prize money is carried over to the following week. Every week, however, somebody will be a winner. If no one picks 15 perfect games, the entrant with the most correct games that week will receive two tickets to the Stanford-California Big Game.

There will also be a $50 bonus prize offer for any Times subscriber who correctly picks the outcome of 16 games.

To assist readers in making their game selections, the Post-Times will again publish the special "Harmon Football Forecasts," giving Harmon's predictions on the outcome of the weekend's football contests.

Football contest rules and entry blanks will be published in next Tuesday's and Wednesday's Times and Wednesday's Post, and every week thereafter for the 10 weeks duration of the contest.

Two Bandits Hijack Cab, Rob Theater

Two armed men held up the Spruce Drive-in Theatre in South San Francisco Saturday night, after handcuffing a taxi driver and commandeering his cab.

Police said the robbers, armed with pistols, approached taxi driver James Dector while he was parked at a car wash across the street from the drive-in movie about 11 p.m.

One of the men pulled a pistol from his pocket and ordered Dector into the back seat of the cab, and the other handcuffed him, police said.

The two men then got into the cab, and drove to the ticket window at the drive-in and ordered manager H. G. Tapper to hand over the register receipts.

After taking approximately $300 from the drive-in manager, they drove back to the car wash, and removed $25 from the taxi driver's billfold.

The pair then left the scene in a dark-colored sedan, police said.

The drive-in manager telephoned police, and Dector was discovered handcuffed in his cab a short time after the robbery occurred.

Erosion Control Plan for S.S.F.

South San Francisco councilmen were expected to consider plans and specifications for an $18,700 "Colma Creek bank erosion correction" last night.

Councilmen were expected to approve the plans and cost estimate on the project, and authorize Director of Public Works Louis Goss to advertise for bids.

"It is imperative that this work be done prior to the rainy season in order to prevent further bank erosion and possible undermining of the adjacent apartments on the west side of Colma Creek," Goss' memorandum to the council stated.

The council also opened bids on the South Spruce Avenue Storm Drainage Project meeting, and were to award a contract for the project if a satisfactory bid was received.

Other business to be considered included a parade permit request from the Rev. Dwight U. Nelson, associate minister the Hillside Church of God.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson is seeking permission to stage a "Youth Do Appreciate" parade in the city September 28.

"In view of many marches, demonstrations, etc., both present and past, which have succeeded only in communicating negativism, we propose a parade in which the youth of our city would band together to express their appreciation for the city, its government, recrea-

Housing Probe Facts to Jury

(by leasing refrigerators to tenants) "has been confirmed."

He also has ascertained, the district attorney said, that a bank account not shown on the official records of the Authority has been maintained in the care of the Housing Authority, and has not been audited by the firm of accountants which conducts an annual audit of the Housing Authority's accounts. In addition, he notes, a fluctuating amount of cash has been maintained in the office safe. Source of both of these funds "appears to have been from the sale of abandoned, junked or surplus property formerly belonging to either the tenants of the Midway Village project or the Housing Authority itself," Sorenson's report states.

Moneys from the bank account and the cash accumulation have been used for "purposes not in connection with the official business of the Housing Authority, but rather for loans to employees, payment of traffic tickets and other incidental personal expenses of Housing Authority employees," the report continues.

Sorenson notes that "extremely poor records have been kept of the source and disbursement of these funds."

The district attorney adds that "most of the commissioners" did not know of the existence of such funds, which, he said, were primarily under the control of Mr. Bloom (Frank A. Bloom, executive director of the Authority, who resigned August 20 and applied for retirement).

It was noted, however, that in order to issue a check on the special bank account, the signature of one of the commissioners was required in addition to that of Bloom.

Sorenson makes no recommendation in his report concerning the irregularities. He stated Tuesday, however, that a copy of the report will be submitted to the grand jury and that "I expect to discuss it with them at their next meeting (September 16)."

"They will want more detailed information and I will give it to them," the district attorney said.

The report and additional information will be given the grand jury "with reference to a possible indictment," Sorenson stated.

In his report, Stallings defends the action of the Authority in discharging Robert A. Manning as director of the Authority's rental assistance program.

The procedure prescribed by law "was followed in the case of the dismissal of the administrator of leased housing," Stallings says in his report.

Noting that Manning was first employed as a consultant for preparation of the application for leased housing, he was not appointed administrator until March 14, 1968, and served to July 26, 1968.

"It may reasonably be assumed that the administrator of leased housing was dismissed during what normally under the county's personnel policy would be a probationary period, during which time dismissal may be made purely at the discretion of the appointing authority," the county manager says in his report.

Noting that it is true that no new public housing has been developed in the county, with the exception of the Half Moon Bay Retirement Center, Stallings says that until only recently there has been no housing shortage in the county, adding that "the construction of low-cost housing projects to soon become ghettos is not in itself desirable."

His report also points out that, although the Authority is county-wide in its activities, it can operate within incorporated cities only with acquiescence of such cities.

Stallings' report was immediately challenged by Menlo Park attorney Boris J. Baranowski, who represents Manning.

Baranowski charges that Stallings' investigation does not go into sufficient depth. The attorney maintains that the matter of sufficient housing should be concerned with housing people can afford.

He contends that there are 3,000 families in the county living in sub-standard housing "and they have been so living for some years."

There are people in homes without bathrooms, without running water and even without operating stoves in such communities as San Mateo, Burlingame and East Palo Alto, Baranowski charged.

The attorney went on to state that he plans to file suit within a week seeking damages of $1,200,000 from the Housing Authority on the allegation that the Authority is in violation of the Health and Safety Code requiring it to operate as a non-profit organization.

Baranowski maintains that the Authority has accumulated profits in "excess of $800,000," and asserted that it has been "gouging" families of servicemen by rental overcharges at Midway Villages, as well as overcharging for rentals at the Half Moon Bay Retirement Center.

Damage Suit Dropped By Lewkowitz

ther "but I would prefer you get a formal statement on this from my attorney."

The suit was filed in Superior Court only last week and charged both the city and developer Henry Doelger, plus 20 John Does, with negligence in developing the site for apartments.

It charged the defendants "negligently constructed, planned, supervised, inspected, accepted, repaired, maintained or allowed such subdivision work" and the defendants were likewise negligent on the grading, placing fill material, compaction and drainage facilities in the area.

Lewkowitz owns and operates a service station some 1,000 feet from the slide scene, at 199 Eastmoor Avenue, and the re-routing of traffic along this thoroughfare has caused his business to fall off, he had claimed.

Drive-in Arrest For Daly City

There are all sorts of drive-in facilities nowadays: drive-in theaters, drive-in banks, drive-in restaurants and even drive-in photo shops.

But Daly City has probably got the only drive-in arrest set-up in the world. And it all came about quite by accident, certainly not by design.

It seems this Los Angeles woman, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Perkins, became lost as she drove through Daly City en route to San Francisco around 10 p.m. Sunday with her two small children — ages five and seven. She decided to follow another car that looked like it knew where it was going.

However, the woman in the car being followed thought Mrs. Perkins was out to harm her and drove directly to the rear entrance of the police station, got out and summoned help.

Officers Wendall Barnes and John McHenry greeted Mrs. Perkins as she drove into the police parking lot, and while they were trying to assist the woman in finding her way to San Francisco they noticed the ignition switch was "punched."

Becoming suspicious, the officers sent out a tracer on the car while continuing their talk with Mrs. Perkins. According to the information received, the car was indeed stolen and the subject of a statewide search.

Mrs. Perkins was arrested and charged with possession of stolen property. Her two children were sent to the receiving home in San Mateo pending the outcome of the case.

Vacation Ends Next Tuesday at Schools

students, and 93 new teachers have been employed in the district this year, according to administrators. Registration is now taking place, with classes scheduled to begin Tuesday.

Cap's Band Boosters Plan Meeting

Capuchino High Band Boosters will open the new school year with the semi-annual parent-student meeting in Cap's Little Theater, September 10 at 8 p.m.

First issue of the agenda, according to president Dale Sly, will be finalization of plans for the Band Boosters' second annual pancake breakfast on September 21.

The meeting of parents and band students will include reports of activities during the summer which helped to raise the band uniform fund to $5,200, over half way to the goal for 100 new uniforms for Cap's marching band.

The parents of each band student are urged to attend the initial meeting as director Ralph Bredenberg will announce the year's schedule for practice, marching and concerts.

DO YOU OWN A "FLIPPO"?

Classes will also begin Tuesday at the South San Francisco Unified School District schools, and officials are urging prospective students to pre-register this week.

Those wishing to pre-register prior to the Tuesday deadline may do so any day this week between 8:30 a.m. and 4:40 p.m. administrators said.

About 13,000 students are expected to enroll, compared to 12,500 last year.

The district has employed 32 additional teachers this year, bringing the total number of certificated employees to 690.

In San Bruno, approximately 5,100 elementary students are expected to register in the San Bruno Parks District schools.

Classes at the San Bruno elementary schools will also begin on Tuesday, but officials have asked that children new to the district register prior to the opening day at the school nearest their home in order to allow time for record checks and other paperwork.

An additional 6,000 students are expected to register for classes at Catholic schools in the North Peninsula area this week.

Union Will Meet, Won't Lift Pickets

Striking Daly City municipal employees Friday agreed to meet with the City Council as soon as possible to resume negotiations on the current wage dispute.

But Local 919 president Bob Evans said the picket line would not be lifted during the talks. He also insisted that any meetings between the city and union be held "on neutral ground—away from City Hall."

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett, in a lengthy reply to telegrams sent from union representative Frank Gillis and the County Labor Council, had suggested two conditions be met before negotiations begin:

"That the picket line be lifted and that the City Council be made up of representatives of the Milk Drivers and Dairy Employees' Union, to attend any talks."

"That the ground rules be talked over with City Attorney Albert Polonsky."

Evans said the membership agreed to the talks with Polonsky, but frowned on lifting the picket line.

September 4 was the deadline the union set for a reply to the latest exchange of letters on the matter.

D.C. Strike Roundup

Rules Given For Meeting With Union

Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett Thursday turned down an offer by the Central Labor Council to enter talks in the current municipal employees strike, while at the same time agreeing to meet with employees' representatives—providing two points are settled first.

Lycett said he would "meet and confer" with the union representatives if (1) pickets are lifted so Councilman Edward J. Dennis, president of the Milk Drivers and Dairy Employees Union, could attend, and (2) an initial meeting between the union and City Attorney Albert Polonsky be set so ground rules and points of discussion could be agreed upon.

Local 919 President Bob Evans said he was "unhappy" over Lycett's second condition insisting that specific items for discussion first be "cleared" with Polonsky.

"We are also in conference with our attorney regarding some false statements emanating from city hall... along with other legal matters," Evans said.

2 Arrested Near Motel In Daly City

A man identified by police as the son of a Palo Alto clergyman was arrested outside a Daly City motel last week and charged with auto theft, possession of stolen credit cards and possession of narcotics equipment.

Police said the suspect identified himself as Alfonso Roundtree, son of the Reverend Roundtree of 1226 Jervis Street, Palo Alto. With the 22-year-old Roundtree was a 19-year-old female companion identified as Inez Brumfield, of 1919 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

Miss Brumfield was also arrested after officer Russ Cunningham allegedly found a small foreign pistol in her purse.

A police department spokesman said "We're almost certain the suspect's name is 'Roundtree,' however, the man we arrested outside the Vin Mar Motel (on Geneva Avenue) is known to San Francisco police by at least four other names."

According to police, Roundtree gave a Daly City address as his current residence. Officer Cunningham questioned Roundtree and the girl outside the motel shortly before 2 a.m. on suspicion of burglary. A routine check of the car revealed it had been stolen. In the back seat police allegedly found an "extra" pair of auto license plates—also stolen—under the front seat two hypodermic syringes were found, police said.

Leaking Gas Touched Off By Heater

A flash fire, touched off when leaking gasoline from a parked truck was ignited by a water heater, damaged a small garage in San Bruno last week damaging two vehicles.

One man was slightly injured when he tried to put out the fire with a garden hose and was cut by glass.

According to fire investigators, a pickup truck parked in the garage of Mrs. Joseph Delcaro, at 1678 Hickory Avenue, leaked gasoline onto the floor near a water heater.

Shortly after 4 a.m. this morning a neighbor, Arthur Cuschieri, heard an explosion inside the garage. When he looked out he observed flames and smoke pouring from the building.

When fire units arrived at the scene they found Aldo Delcaro, 25-year-old son of Mrs. Delcaro, fighting the fire. He had received several deep gashes in his hand and arm from broken glass and was treated for his injuries.

The fire was quickly extinguished and damage was confined to the garage interior and the two vehicles parked inside. Estimated damage was $1,000, a fire department spokesman said.

Course Given In Semantics

Adult evening courses in general semantics, subtitled "How to Communicate More Effectively," will be offered at Westmoor and South San Francisco High Schools beginning September 18.

The Westmoor course will be held on Mondays at 7 p.m., and the South San Francisco course, on Tuesdays at 7 p.m., starting September 18.

These classes will deal with everyday problems of communication such as assumptions, listening and perception, and will consist largely of exercises, games, demonstrations and discussions.

They will be taught by Robert Wanderer, past president of the San Francisco chapter, International Society for General Semantics.

Man Found Shot Dead

A 43-year-old San Francisco man was found shot to death in the Town Motel, 3211 Geneva Avenue, an apparent suicide, Daly City police said last week.

The man was identified as Donald Turney, of 24 Agua Street, San Francisco. He had been shot once in the head with a .22-caliber rifle.

The victim was a salesman for an East Bay bakery. There were no notes found at the scene.

The motel manager told police the victim registered at the motel shortly before 7 p.m., Monday. When there was no answer at his room about two hours after the morning check-out time, the unidentified manager called police who broke in the door and found the body.

A San Mateo County Coroner's office report is pending, police said.

Registration For Jefferson

Registration for seventh and eighth grade students new to the Jefferson Elementary School District will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday (September 3, 4, and 5) at the following school offices: Benjamin Franklin, 700 Stewart Street; Colma Intermediate, 550 East Market Street; and Fernando Rivera, 101 Lake Merced Boulevard.

Pacifica Man Pleads Guilty In Shooting

A prominent Pacifica political figure arrested August 16 on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon in connection with the shooting of a young motorcyclist pleaded guilty to reduced charges in North County Municipal Court last week.

Allan W. Eisan, 53, a former member of the San Mateo County Grand Jury and an active worker in area Democratic politics, entered a plea of guilty to charges of battery and "brandishing a weapon," in Judge Jose Delarios' court.

Eisan's case is being reviewed by probation officers, and he will return to court for sentencing on the reduced charges in two or three weeks, according to spokesmen in the district attorney's office.

Pacifica police arrested Eisan after he telephoned and reported shooting the motorcyclist, James Laskier, 24, on Gypsy Hill, a vacant area adjacent to his home at Number One Gypsy Hill Road.

Eisan told officers he was attempting to perform a citizen's arrest on the motorcyclist, who he said was creating an annoyance in the neighborhood, when the shooting incident occurred.

He attempted to fire a warning shot into the ground, according to police reports, but the bullet struck Laskier's leg.

Eisan is a teacher in the San Francisco Unified School District, according to police reports.

Youths Hurt At Pacifica

Two Pacifica youths were injured last Friday morning when their small foreign sports car overturned at the intersection of Oddstad Boulevard and Linda Mar, police said.

Injured were Calvin Greenawalt, 19, a passenger in the car, and John Phenester, 1539 Linda Mar Boulevard, the driver.

Greenawalt was treated at Mary's Help Hospital for facial abrasions, officers said.

Phenester received shoulder injuries in the accident, but did not require hospitalization.

Officers said the wreck occurred about 12:15 a.m. as Phenester attempted to round the corner at 35 miles per hour.

Longs Drug Manager Is Appointed

Sanford Haber has been named manager of Daly City's first Longs Drug Store, located next to Q.F.I. Market in the new Serramonte Shopping Center.

Haber, an eight-year veteran with Longs Drugs, joined the firm as a management trainee and has advanced to this present assignment while serving in stores in the Salinas, San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area. He was previously an assistant store manager of Longs Drug Store in Salinas.

The young executive is a Captain, U.S. Army veteran, is married and the father of three children. He is a 1960 Business Administration graduate of The University of California at Berkeley, and graduated from Lowell High School in S.F.

Well qualified in all phases of drug store operation, Haber is a product of Longs' "on-the-job" management training program. Under this plan a trainee is instructed in all basic drug and retail selling principles, plus many detailed assignments of store operation. These are supplemented with practical experience in store training.

Commenting on his appointment as the manager of Daly City's first Longs Drugs, Haber stated, "I am delighted to manage this beautiful new store in Daly City and to bring to the residents of the area the same fine values and courteous service that have led customers to shop in Longs Drugs for the past 30 years."

"My family and I are looking forward to making many new friends in the Daly City area. The new Longs Drugs is certainly one of the most beautiful stores I have seen, and I am looking forward to showing it to as many people as possible."

Longs Drugs will have nearly 23,000 square feet of floor space and share 5200 free parking spaces on the lot. It will feature a modern pharmacy, a complete cosmetics department, a photographic department, a complete selection of beverages, and many other departments.

Longs has 40 stores now operating in California and Hawaii as well as eight other stores under construction or in the leasing stage.

Filipino Adventists Plan

"The folly of exalting one's self by debasing another" will be studied by members of the Daly City Filipino Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 101 Vista Grande Avenue, in Sabbath school services Saturday, September 7, at 10 a.m.

"Our study this week will consider the principle that true Christian love is violated by the desire for self-assertion and by criticism of others," said Mrs. Leonie Tortuya of San Francisco, Sabbath school director of the local church, in announcing this week's special study.

"Self-glorification and pride in one's own accomplishments exalts self-sufficiency and fosters presumption," Mrs. Tortuya explained. "It is this type of thinking that is basically wicked and akin to the spirit of Lucifer. Our study provides an understanding of how to cope with this problem, and the need of man for complete reliance upon a supreme Being."

In addition to classes for adult members, there will be Sabbath school programs for each age group, said Mrs. Tortuya.

"These programs are designed to be helpful to the daily life of all members of the family and are not limited to Adventist church members," she said.

Sisterhood Meeting At Temple, Judea Sept. 17

The first event of the Sisterhood of Temple Judea will be held September 17. Beginning at noon, this luncheon meeting will feature Miss Viviane Woodard demonstrating effects achievable by the proper use of cosmetics.

Reservations may be made by mailing $1.50, price of the luncheon, to Mrs. Zane Kaplan, 35 Lakeview Drive, Daly City, or Mrs. Jack Stevenson, 35 Parkside Drive, Daly City.

Recent Bar Mitzvahs at Temple Judea were Steven Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Harris of Daly City, and Peter Storm, son of Mrs. Louis Storm, also of Daly City.

Rabbi Shore Returns To B'nai Israel

Rabbi Solomon A. Shore will return to the pulpit at Congregation B'nai Israel for the Sabbath services Friday, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Rabbi Shore recently returned from vacation.

He will be assisted in the Sabbath service by Cantor Henry Greenberg, and the service will be in honor of the recently reorganized men's club.

New members will be called to the pulpit for blessing, and pins will be presented by Men's Club President Julius Michaelis.

The group will also host the Oneg Shabbat (social hour) following the services.

Roos/Atkins Store Opens Thursday At Serramonte

The formal opening of the thirty-sixth Roos-Atkins store will be signaled by a ribbon-cutting ceremony in the Serramonte Center Thursday morning at 10. The opening ceremony will be attended by Roos-Atkins executives and civic dignitaries.

The three-day Grand Opening celebration will continue through Saturday, September 7 and during each day of the festivities R-A will give away an 18-inch Admiral TV. Customers may fill out and deposit coupons for each day's entry to the new store.

Drawings for each set will be held on September 5, 6, and 9 at 11 a.m. "and just to make it as easy as possible, the winner need not be present to win," a store spokesman said.

In addition, a free set of six handsome "Centennial" glasses in golden decor will be given away to every customer who makes a charge purchase of $10 or more during the Grand Opening.

Reverend Stram Reveals Topic

"The Divine Formula for Wisdom, Sight and Insight" will be the Rev. Walter Stram's topic Sunday morning at Peninsula Church of Christ in San Bruno.

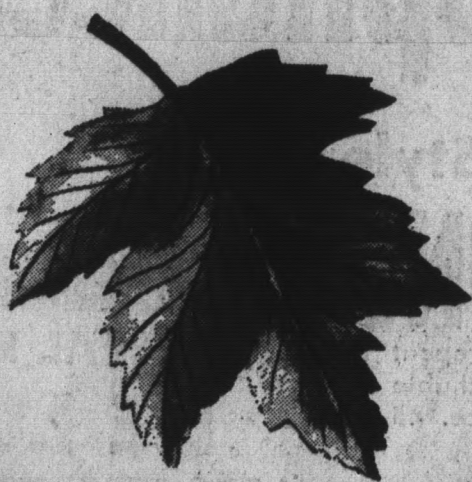

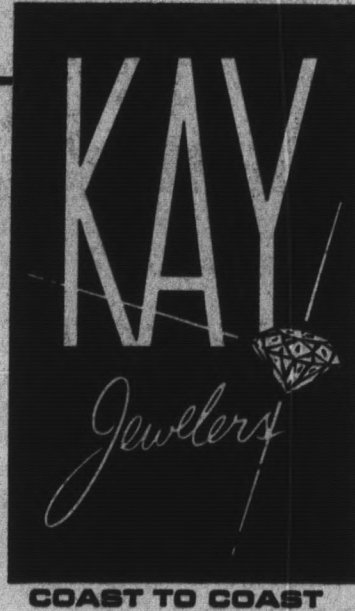

The morning worship service will begin at 11.

Study groups for all ages are held at 9:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Sundays and 7:30 p.m. Thursdays at the church.

TEEN-AGERS ROOM? MAKE IT ORANGE!

Teen-agers like any color — so long as it is orange!

At least that is the current consensus of interior designers consulted by the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers on the subject of color preferences of teens.

And also scoring high among those under 20 are yellow, yellow-green and olive. As for furnishing their own room, they like to have lots of storage area, especially open-face stack units that go on top of chests, dressers, desks, etc.

For boys, oak is a favorite wood either in natural finish or painted, preferably in a darker, more masculine tone. The "forever feminine" girl still likes her bedroom furniture in a paint finish of white or pastel tint. The canopied bed still meets her approval. She, too, likes plenty of storage space for books, treasures and clothing. A corner desk can pinch-hit for a dressing table.

A pegboard on one wall is almost a must for the teen-ager's room.

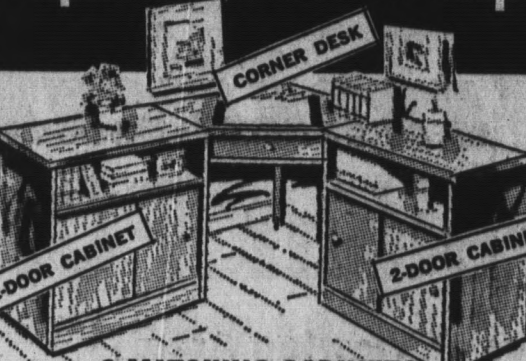

Catering to that tremendous "young population" — teen to 20 — are many manufacturers who a few years back confined their designs to regular household furniture.

You will find an excellent selection of young adult furniture at our store.

Gilson requests that as many members as possible bring their rummage to the meeting.

Burial of Soldier Starts Court Fight

A fight between a San Bruno woman and her former husband over custody of a son who was killed in Vietnam was brought to light yesterday.

Joseph Geller, attorney for Mrs. Louise L. Emmons, filed suit in Superior Court demanding that she be given the right to bury her son in a location of her choice.

Her son, Bobby John Byrd, 20, died August 20 of wounds suffered on a mission north of Saigon. The young man, a graduate of Crestmoor High School, was a member of the 25th Infantry Division.

Named defendants in the lawsuit are Mrs. Emmons' former husband, Lawrence E. Byrd Sr., of Orange County, the United States Army and the commanding officer of the mortuary division of the Oakland Army Base, where the soldier's body is held.

According to the suit the Army refuses to bury her son in accordance with her wishes but has indicated that it intends to ship the body to Arkansas for burial at Byrd's direction.

The suit states that Mr. and Mrs. Byrd came to California from Arkansas in 1953 and the following year Byrd deserted his family and has not contributed to their support since then. The wife obtained a divorce in Arkansas in 1963 and was granted custody of the children, including the dead youth. The wife remarried in 1966. According to the suit she swore out criminal complaints against Byrd for non-support.

Chess Games At Bruno

The San Bruno Chess Club, recent grand prize winner at the Sonoma Chess Festival, will conduct its annual tournament starting Monday evening, September 9.

The tournament will be divided into two sections: One for "A" "B" class players, and one for "C" class and novices. The Club is most anxious to have as many newcomers as possible enter. One need not be a member of the Club. Trophies and prizes will be awarded in both sections.

No advance "sign-up" is necessary. The club meets every Monday evening at Parkside School, 1801 Niles Avenue, 7:30 to 11 p.m.

Seasiders Invite New Dancers

Seasider Square Dance Club of Pacifica has invited interested couples who would like to learn square dancing to visit open house classes Tuesday evenings, September 10, 17 and 24 from 8 to 10:30 p.m. at Vallemar School multi-purpose room.

There will be square dance introductions and question and answer periods. The Seasiders have been dancing for over 11 years and have had many classes for beginners. Further information may be obtained by calling Rex or Lillian Beach, 340 Greenway Drive, Pacifica.

Adult Social Dance Class

The classes will meet at Orange Memorial Park Recreation Center and cover the foxtrot, cha cha, rumba, swing, waltz and pom pom. Interested couples are asked to pre-register at the South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department offices (Magnolia and Grand Avenues) before September 18.

The fee for the seven sessions is $9 per couple. The popular series is under the direction of Irene Weed Smith who is a member of Dance Masters of Chicago, California Folk Dance Federation, the AAUW and teaches in San Francisco.

Ballroom Dance Class

80 Readers Given Party At Daly City

Eighty Daly City youngsters, participants in the summer reading program sponsored by the Daly City Library, enjoyed a theatre party here Thursday at Franklin D. Roosevelt School.

A special showing of "Hans Christian Andersen" was presented by the Daly City Friends of the Library, coupled with refreshments, to encourage the boys and girls, aged 6 through 12, to continue reading interests developed over the summer months.

The program, the first of its kind presented through the cooperation of the library and the Jefferson Elementary School District, was called a success by Samuel Chandler, Daly City librarian.

"State Library journals," he said, "gave special mention to this activity."

Working with the reading program at the various group locations were Mary Margaret O'Neill, Janice Hastings, Darnell Fontinot and Charlene Shelton, all Daly City residents.

Honeymoon In Hawaii For Couple

A home in San Bruno awaits Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lawrence Clark (Mary Constance D'Amico) who are honeymooning in Hawaii.

The couple was married at noon Saturday at St. Dunstan's Catholic Church in Millbrae by the Rev. Joseph O'Connell. A reception followed in St. Dunstan's School Hall hosted by her mother, Mrs. Louise D'Amico of Millbrae. Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodley Thomas Clark of San Bruno.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Vincent D'Amico, Mary wore a floor-length A-line gown of silk organza with a Watteau train, standup collar and long pointed sleeves. Seed pearl tracings were appliqued to the bodice and skirt, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

She changed into a white dress and rose colored coat for her traveling ensemble. Terry Ervin was the honor attendant for Mary in a blue and lavender floor-length gown. The bridesmaids, in similar gowns, included Pat Byrne, Yvette Clark, sister of the bride, Jean Halcorn and Terri Hopp of New York. Their flowers were lavender asters.

Mary Louise and Debbie D'Amico, nieces of the bride, were flower girls, in short blue frocks with white dotted Swiss pinafores. David Wenger carried the rings for his uncle.

Steven Hardy of San Mateo served as best man for Donald, and the other masculine attendants included Angelo D'Amico, brother of the bride, Art Reardon, Bob Martin and Mike Williams.

Mary and Donald both are graduates of Capuchino High School, and she is a student at the University of San Francisco where she is studying French. She also is the sister of Theodore D'Amico, who traveled from Germany with his wife to attend the wedding. Donald who also attended the College of San Mateo now is studying at San Francisco State College where he is a drama major. He has another sister, Mrs. William Wenger of Imperial Beach.

Pacifica Jaycees Attend Dinner And 'Spook Run'

Last week the Pacifica Jaycees, their wives and invited guests, joined together in a Spook Run.

The social event began with an early dinner for more than 60 people at the Muffin Mine restaurant in Eureka Square, Pacifica.

The Spook Run, a mad-cap treasure hunt, followed the dinner. Participants were instructed before hand to bring a map of San Mateo County, a reliable flashlight, if such a thing exists, and a shovel.

It began with Jaycee Social Chairman, Jerry Skaggs, giving last minute instructions as the first clues were passed out.

The participants were divided into teams of two couples per car. One of the men drove while the other navigated. The girls were left to decipher the cryptic clues and kibitz as necessary.

Along with the treasure hunting kit was an emergency envelope with instructions for those who might interpret the clues incorrectly.

The merry chase for a treasure of dinner for four at the Moonraker restaurant led the Jaycees from Pacifica to the Princeton Inn via San Bruno, South San Francisco, Millbrae, Half Moon Bay, and to the treasure location on the beach of El Granada four miles north of Half Moon Bay.

There were three buried treasures representing first, second, and third prizes. Only two were found. In a remarkable two-hour effort, the Jaycees managed to rearrange two-thirds of the beach of El Granada.

Some 45 to 50 Jaycees had converged on the beach with shovels and flashlights, much to the interest of a number of curious onlookers.

After a futile attempt to locate the third and remaining prize, the treasure seekers gathered for a celebration party at the Princeton Inn.

The dinner for four went to Dennis King and his wife, Brenda, who were teamed with Stan Van Der Hule and his wife, Irma.

The second prize was recovered by John and Mimi Iamario, along with their guest, Steve Renner from the San Carlos Jaycees.

Pacifica Jaycee President John Drew remarked that the Spook Run Social was clearly an enjoyable event for all who attended.

Lee Riewerts, vice president, commented on the great job Jerry Skaggs, a Jaycee of less than two months, did in putting on the Spook Run. The Jaycees are sure to see more such social affairs in the future.

Seek New Agency To Handle Water

Establishment of a county-wide agency to deal with San Francisco on water supply matters is to be discussed at a meeting scheduled for September 11. Representatives of 18 water service companies, districts or departments have been invited to attend the meeting at the Hillsdale Inn in San Mateo. Edward King, chairman of a special water committee appointed by the County Board of Supervisors, said the purpose of the session will be to discuss what legal steps would be necessary to establish the county-wide agency.

Last May the committee urged the county board to negotiate with San Francisco, which furnishes most of the domestic water used in San Mateo County, for a specific water allotment for the Coastside area and to speed up planning for the Pescadero Project, which is to be designed to meet the coastal area's needs through the year 2000. Since then a contract for increased amounts of water for the coast has been signed and the land for the Pescadero Project has been purchased. The fate of the project, however, awaits a report from the Army Corps of Engineers as to the economic and engineering feasibility of constructing a huge earthen dam on Pescadero Creek above Memorial Park.

Space Problems

Space problems two weeks ago caused some funny things to happen to our column on the problems of youth baseball once kids get past Little League, more specifically to an interview with Walter Mails. The main purpose of this column, therefore, will be to make amends to readers interested in the resultant confusion, and to Mails, who was cut short to the point that certain charges he made were considerably weakened.

First, there was the paragraph on what Mails called "ambulance chasers invading sandlot ball." A couple of sentences were eliminated which made the paragraph — and seemingly Mails — incoherent. What he said was, "They (the ambulance chasers) hang around the few diamonds where they're still playing semi-pro, now, waiting for some poor woman to get plunked by a foul ball. As soon as it happens, they rush down to the stand, hand them a card, and promise them riches beyond their wildest dreams if they'll sue. It's no wonder big firms think twice about sponsoring teams."

We also had Walter calling "China" Lang, "Chin" Lang, and attributed some of Walter's quotes to the writer because of the elimination of quotation marks. Our most serious omission, however, concerned specific charges by Mails as to how Lang (General Manager of the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department) and George Caninus (Coordinator of Health, Physical Education, Athletics and Recreation for the San Francisco public schools) were "at least partially responsible for the lack of interest in kid baseball."

Mails had said, "They're football and basketball men, personally, and don't give a damn about baseball..." The way Caninus treats the high school baseball players is sad. Football and basketball players ride to games on chartered buses. Baseball players take the Muni."

It was at this point the column was cut, after Mails had made only his first and certainly mildest point. He had gone on:

"Here are more concrete examples. I had a deal set up one time wherein a huge banquet would be held by a local food products firm for all the San Francisco high school baseball players and their coaches. I told the firm that they could derive no publicity from the banquet, aside from the fact of the label on their food products, which would be on the tables. They agreed. In fact, they didn't want publicity. It was strictly a good will gesture. Every school accepted the invitation. Caninus had to approve it, and refused. 'Too commercial,' he said."

"Another time I worked out a scheme whereby for $1.50 a ticket a sports fan could have a package deal of seeing a Giant game, a high school football game and a high school basketball game. What the hell, it was strictly a good will gesture. The high school football and basketball leagues would have profited most. 'Too commercial,' Caninus said."

"And I'll tell you, there are a lot of high school principals who could care less about baseball, because no admission is charged and it therefore brings in no revenue. There are few rallies for baseball, no bands, no cheerleaders, little encouragement, and too often, coaches who don't know a thing and whose proficiency is never questioned."

"What's so pitiful is that so many of these people think that I, that the Giants, have ulterior motives when we suggest promotions to boost baseball. But Mr. Stoneham is genuinely interested in kids and baseball, and so am I. (Note: Mails volunteered for Marine duty during World War II at age 40 so that he could talk to and entertain young servicemen. Look, I'm 71 years old and almost died of a heart attack last year. I stay in the game because I love it. It's been good to me. It's educated me, provided a good living; I've traveled, have met great and interesting people — seven presidents of the United States, included — and I've had fun through it all. In short, baseball has given me a great life. Why shouldn't I boost it and point out to kids the possibilities it offers, whenever I can?"

"Sometimes I get so disgusted with some people I feel like going home to my wife and forgetting it all, but I always come back for more. I've got the guts of a burglar."

LOCAL NOTES: Tolo Solaita, the 20-year-old Daly City boy signed by the Yankees a few years ago, is tearing up the Carolina League. The southpaw swinging first sacker — only native of the Samoan Islands in organized baseball — is hitting .307, has 42 HR's and 101 RBI's in just 117 games for high point-Thomasville. Solaita has already gone past Guz Zernial's mark of 42 HR's in a single Carolina League season, which was the third highest single season mark in the league. He's now closing in on Leon Wagner, who once hit 51.

Last time we looked, Pacifica and Westmoor's Rich Morales, the dandy glove, was hitting around .260 at Hawaii in the Coast League... And the Rams' Bruce Hix had poked his BA above the .300 mark at Fresno in the California League...

Al Figone's Terra Nova nine, playing en masse as American Legion Post No. 238, in two summer leagues, took two championships, losing just one game total for play in both leagues.

MISCELLANY: If Horace Stoneham could talk Willie Mays into becoming a playing manager, he would be able to pull off one of the greatest promotional coups of the generation. He would: 1) get a popular new manager, 2) hire the first Negro major league manager, thereby possibly beating one of the expansion teams to the publicity punch (rumors have them giving jobs to Maury Wills, Ernie Banks, Junior Gilliam and Bill White), 3) out-promote Charlie Finley and perhaps rid himself of the Oakland threat once and for all.

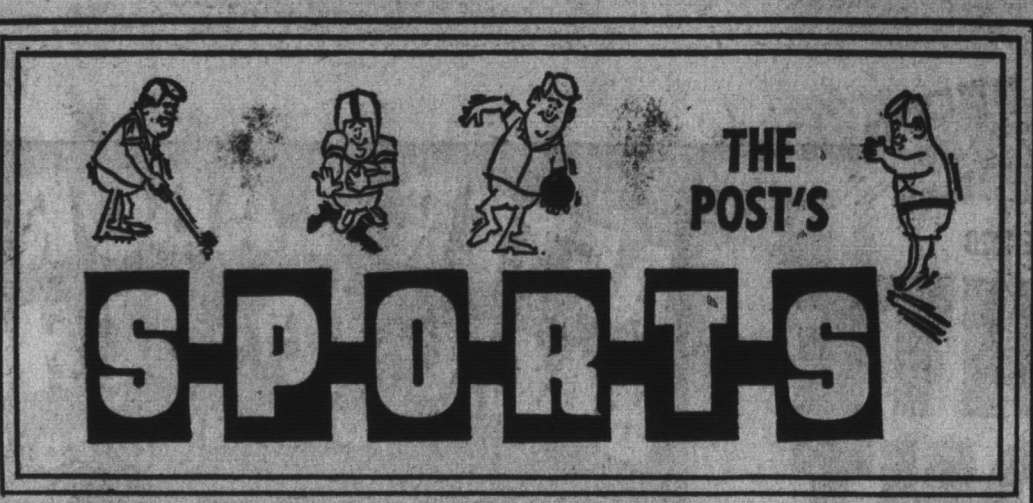

To complete a report we started on Mickey Mantle, which ended up on the print-room floor. They're really babying Mick now, and it must hurt his pride. For instance, the ball isn't thrown to him after it's been had around the infield after each out. They want him to exert as little energy as possible.

As "washed up" as Mantle is, he's still the most valuable man in the Yankee batting order. Even though he's hitting .230, his numerous walks give him an on-base average of better than .400. They still respect him, pitch around him, and any time a club can force the opposition to concede a base runner twice a game, they've lost an edge.

The Yankees are almost as sad as Mantle. They used to be Mantle surrounded by talent. Now it's Mantle among some baseball players.

MISCELLANY: Have you noticed the shift in images between the Giants and Athletics? When the season began, the A's were characterized as hitless wonders with great pitching, the Giants as sluggers with merely good pitching. But look at the team stats. While the Giants have hit a few more homers than Oakland, the A's, at this writing, are easily outpointing them in BA and have scored more runs. And giant pitching is clearly more stable. The A's, incidentally, now lead the majors in stolen bases.

And finally, we close with two pet peeves. One, Candlestick would be a lot more convenient if management allowed the patronage to travel, after games, over the field and out through the center field wall, ala Seals Stadium. It would move traffic quicker, cut congestion. Also, everytime we buy box seats we feel gyped. About midway through the game, sometimes even sooner, people from the reserves, even the grandstands, are ignored as they invade the boxes. Ain't fair...

Officials Report Brisbane Recall Move Has Failed

Efforts to bring about an election to recall Brisbane Mayor John Bell and Councilman Edward Schwenderlauf have apparently failed, city officials report.

Acting City Clerk Joanne Caivano said today initiators of the recall effort failed to file their petitions within the allotted 60 days after serving the two councilmen with notice of the recall attempt.

Monday was the deadline for filing the petitions, she said.

Apparently, opponents of the two "anti-scavenger" officials failed to obtain signatures of the one-fourth of the city's registered voters necessary to force a recall election.

Harold Marshall, Darrel Hansen and Dee Humrich announced intentions to circulate the recall petitions June 24.

Approximately 373 signatures would have been required to bring about the recall election, Mrs. Caivano said.

Supporters of the recall effort have not disclosed the number of signatures actually obtained, the acting clerk said.

Mayor Bell, who returned from vacation this week, declined to comment on the apparent failure of the recall effort.

"I have nothing to say on that matter," Bell said, "but I would like to urge our citizens to unite and work for a better Brisbane in the future."

Many observers in the city feel its residents are "growing tired of political upheaval," after several years of bitter fighting over the garbage dump issue.

"There has been an anti-recall sentiment growing in Brisbane since last year's unsuccessful attempt to unseat pro-scavenger Councilman Jess Salmon," said Lumen Drake, a leader in the fight against the dumping.

No Phone In Solitary, Judge Told

A lack of effective communication between a San Francisco municipal court and officials of that city's jail in San Bruno has apparently resulted in the denial of two prisoners' right to an attorney.

Municipal Judge Gerald G. O'Garra was told yesterday that for nine days two young inmates awaiting trial for assault on another prisoner, have not been permitted to call their attorneys. He said he learned that an order he issued Wednesday to allow the men to make their calls had never reached the jail.

A deputy sheriff in charge of the jail claimed the judge did not specify "when we were to allow the prisoners to make the calls." He said the men could make the calls when they get out of solitary confinement unless he received another letter from the judge to let them make the calls immediately. The prisoners are Clarence Woods, 22, and Michael C. Grant, 19, both of San Francisco.

Judge O'Garra also heard complaints from prisoners that there was no drinking water in the isolation cells and prisoners had to drink from the toilet bowl. This and other complaints were denied by jail authorities.

However, the judge requested an investigation by the Sheriff, the Mayor's Committee on Jails and representatives of the American Civil Liberties Union.

The two men, along with three others charged with the same offense, will appear in court Wednesday.

Learn How To Fight Fire

San Bruno has been selected as one of 100 cities in the United States to present a pilot program in "Emergency Self-Help Fire Fighting" that has been developed by the International Association of Fire Chiefs in cooperation with the Office of Civil Defense.

Three sessions of two hours each have been tentatively scheduled for the first three Wednesday nights of September.

The class, to be conducted by Training Officer Gus Felix of the San Bruno Fire Department, will be limited to 50 persons over the age of 16.

Sign up for the course by calling Captain Felix at Central Fire Station.

D.C. Waiter Shot to Death

A waiter giving his dog an early morning walk was shot to death today in Alamo Square.

Homicide Inspector Dave Toschi said Joseph F. Kennedy, about 45, a waiter at a Westlake restaurant, was hit by shots in the back of the head, left shoulder and left cheek.

Kennedy's roommate said the victim took his boxer for a walk in the square, about a half block from their apartment, when he got home from work a few minutes after midnight. His body was found by a passerby a few minutes after he entered the park.

$50 Million Plan Unveiled

An executive for Cabot, Cabot and Forbes Industrial Parks Wednesday disclosed plans for a $50 million hotel-office complex to be built on a site in South San Francisco's industrial area.

Paul M. ("Mike") Gilbert, project manager for the four Cabot, Cabot and Forbes industrial parks in the Bay Area, told Chamber of Commerce members the firm plans to begin construction on the project within the next two years.

Current plans call for a 26-story office tower with more than 1.5-million square feet of floor space, a 1,000-room hotel and underground parking space for 5,000 vehicles on a site overlooking the Bay at the northern tip of the industrial park.

Gilbert said the idea for the new development was born from projected growth at San Francisco International Airport "and the realization that our South San Francisco Industrial Park is in reality an industrial and office park."

"A survey a few months ago indicated 50 per cent of the employees in the industrial park are white collar workers," he said. "We are moving into the computer age, and we must prepare for it." Gilbert said there is a definite need for more hotel convention space in the Bay Area, and the South San Francisco site is "ideally situated" for hotel development.

The company is awaiting a decision from the Federal Aviation Agency on the office tower plans, the project manager said.

ing, we may have to alter the plans to conform with height regulations. However, we will reduce the height of the office tower if this proves necessary, and proceed with the project."

Speaking at the monthly luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce membership, Gilbert said he is informing the city of his company's future plans at this time "to assist city officials in their own planning."

City co-operation will be needed, especially in the area of traffic control, if the project is to succeed, he said.

Arthur W. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berry of 1140 Glenview Dr., San Bruno, wound up his tour of duty aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk recently.

Berry, who recently was advanced to Chief Commissaryman, was ordered to San Francisco Bay Naval Shipyards

Berry joined the Navy in February of 1961 after graduating from Balboa High School in San Francisco. He reported aboard Kitty Hawk in March of 1965 and is presently on his third combat cruise off the coast of North Vietnam.

Berry is in overall charge of the ship's giant bakery where over 5,000 loaves of bread is baked each week in addition to the hundreds of pies, sheet-cakes, rolls, biscuits and donuts.

"Making chief was my most rewarding experience since coming aboard Kitty Hawk," said Berry. "Working aboard such a large ship as Kitty Hawk helped me out tremendously on my advancement examination because it gave me an overall knowledge of food services operations," he added.

The Kitty Hawk is due back in her homeport of San Diego this summer and will bring with her 5,000 happy, well-fed men, thanks to Berry and his co-workers.

The proclamations read as follows:

WHEREAS, it is recognized that full voter participation by the citizens of the United States is a foundation necessary to the maintenance and nourishment of our democratic system of government; and

WHEREAS, it is desired to encourage all citizens of the City of Daly City to participate fully in the work of their local, state and national governments by exercising their invaluable right of franchise at the forthcoming General Election; and

WHEREAS, it is recognized that the need of full voter registration is an indispensable requirement to full participation by the citizens of this City of Daly City in the electoral process; it is desired to encourage and promote registration among the citizens of the City of Daly City; and

WHEREAS, the last day for said registration for the General Election is September 12, 1968, NOW, THEREFORE, I, BERNARD J. HOME FURNISHINGS
WHEREAS, the quality and effectiveness of the decor in each citizen's home depends in part on the home furnishing industry; and

Less Students At Westmoor

Westmoor High School opens this year with a smaller enrollment, a two-school plan, and temporary roads.

Reduced from last year's 2375 to 2150, Westmoor student body continues the largest in the Jefferson Union High School District.

With Serramonte's ninth and tenth graders on the same campus, a staggered school session with four longer lunch periods is set. For the first time a full scale noon activities program is planned.

Since the recent Eastmoor Avenue slide has closed campus parking lot access, parents are asked to drop students on the Westmoor Avenue or Alta Loma sides of the campus.

Near the cafeteria, a temporary road allows entry to the school parking lot from Edgemont Avenue. A one-way, temporary exit is in use to Del Prado.

Until Eastmoor Avenue is repaired, students are asked not to bring cars to school.

P-TA Will Host FDR Teachers

The Franklin D. Roosevelt P-TA will be giving the teachers a Welcome Back luncheon on Friday, September 6.

FDR mothers are invited to attend a "Get Acquainted Coffee," sponsored by the PTA, Sept. 10 from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. The event will be repeated at 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

New Youth Discussion Groups to Form in S.S.F.

FIND (Focusing Into New Discoveries) will be a new youth program this year at St. Veronica's Parish in South San Francisco.

FIND groups will attempt to discover, "What does my religion teach me?" and "How can I apply this to my life today?" Beginning in October, groups will meet twice a month in the home of their advisor.

The idea for home discussion groups has come independently from the Teen Club, CCD, parents, and teachers at St. Veronica's. Teen Club and CCD high school members have been actively involved in the planning of this program.

FIND is open to all high school juniors and seniors in the Parish. Public school students who join will not be asked to attend CCD classes at the school.

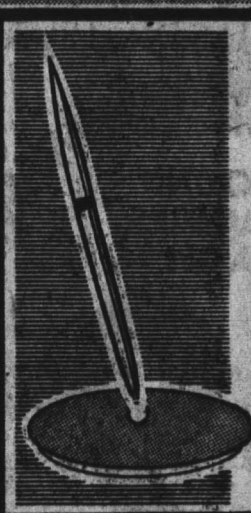

Students will sign up for FIND on specified dates through the Teen Club and CCD; September 23 at Teen Club, September 24 at CCD registration. Groups will be made up of students of the same grade from the various schools. The advisors will be informed of who is in their groups, notify the members, and plan their meetings.

Moderator for the program is the Rev. Angelo DeManti; students involved in the planning include Barney Mooney, Dennis Del Grande, Joan Chiurco, Kathy Moakler, Sue Pettigrew, Liz Bues, and Debbie Nelson. Advisors are Messrs. and Mrs. Bruce Baricchevich, Ray Bly, Tom Carrigan, Larry Dito, Ray Donohue, Tom Dowling, Fred Glesener, John Harness, Matt Rowan, and Mike Ruane.

Catfish Farm Business Is Now Booming

Business is booming in catfish farming, according to the Department of the Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries (BCF). It is one of America's newest multimillion dollar a year industries thanks to the enterprising people running the catfish farms.

In 1963, catfish farming was one of the smallest of small businesses, with only a few thousand pounds raised annually, but production has jumped to millions of pounds in recent years. Catfish farms are operated in the Mississippi River drainage areas of Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi, Louisiana, and elsewhere in the Central and Southern States.

At present, farm-raised catfish are available almost exclusively in restaurants as a gourmet item, but BCF Director H. E. Crowther said that eventually the farm-raised product may be marketed through retail stores. Catfish farms offer the customer a consistently high-quality product, rich in protein, which is fed a controlled diet, resulting in a distinct and consistently good flavor. Catfish is processed as a fresh or frozen product.

One of the most profitable aspects of catfish farming is supplying fee fishing lakes. The fish are transported in tank trucks from the fish farms to the lakes where clients catch their own succulent catfish for a fee which averages about 50 cents, with an additional charge ranging from 50-55 cents per pound for the fish caught.

In the past few years, catfish farmers have demonstrated a marked ability to increase production. The Bureau of Commercial Fisheries predicted a rapid growth of catfish farming several years ago, and through its regional offices assisted in the orderly expansion of the industry.

BCF test kitchens have developed several catfish recipes, among them this one for "New Orleans Catfish."

NEW ORLEANS CATFISH
2 pounds catfish steaks
1/2 tsp. salt
Dash pepper
2 cups cooked rice
2 tsp. grated onion
1/2 tsp. curry powder
6 thin lemon slices
1/4 cup butter or margarine
Chopped parsley

Thaw frozen steaks. Cut into serving-size portions and place in a well-greased baking dish. Sprinkle fish with salt and pepper. Combine rice, onion, and curry powder; spread over fish. Top with lemon slices and dot with butter. Cover. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 25 to 35 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Remove cover the last few minutes of cooking to allow for slight browning. Sprinkle with parsley. Serves 6.

Additional catfish recipes are available in the BCF publication "Fancy Catfish," available for 25 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Simple Chili Casserole For 6 or 8

For serving six to eight people plan on three cans (15 ounces each) of chili, without beans. Open the cans and heat the chili in a saucepan while you crush enough corn chips to measure four cups. Arrange these at the bottom of a greased 12 x 18-inch baking dish. Using one cup chopped onion and two cups grated sharp Cheddar cheese, place in layers over corn chips one-half cup of chopped onion, one cup of grated sharp Cheddar cheese and half of the chili. Repeat topping with remaining corn chips. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degree F.) 25 minutes.

BITS AND PIECES
What do you do with a cup or less of leftover meat? Chop or grind it and use in a casserole of scalloped corn or add it to fritter batter.

Tangy Sauce

For hot dogs or hamburgers, cooked inside or out, here's a tangy sauce that will give them plenty of spunk: to two tablespoons of lard or drippings, add one-fourth cup catsup, one tablespoon prepared mustard and one-half teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Heat until blended.

This Cheese 'Seasonable'

Cottage cheese's mild flavor lends itself well to a variety of seasonings to make new and easy snacks. The Dairy Council of California suggests adding honey, curry powder, celery or dill seeds, or just garlic or onion.

SUNNY SIDE BEEF STEAKS
Best beginning for busy days. Brown beef cube steaks quickly in hot skillet. Arrange over hot buttered toast and top with sunny side eggs. Garnish with tomato slices and serve immediately.

One of the most delightful salads we've tried recently is great to serve "the girls"—whatever their age—when you are entertaining at noontime.

It's an interesting combination of crabmeat, artichoke hearts and grapefruit sections served on salad greens with an Orange Dressing.

These days everyone is interested in figure-control recipes so you'll be glad to know that this salad will suit diet-conscious guests as well as those who don't need to count calories. The Orange Dressing that accompanies the artichoke hearts and grapefruit sections, and the mayonnaise for the crabmeat, are not added to the salad—they're passed. Figure-controllers can take as little as they like of the Orange Dressing (low in oil) and omit the mayonnaise.

The salad will taste delicious offered with soft rolls—the attractive kind that have an egg glaze. Besides the rolls, we suggest that you also have crisp rye wafers—the diet variety—on hand.

LUNCHEON SALAD
2 packages (each 9 ounces) frozen artichoke hearts

Orange Dressing (See recipe below)
Salad greens
2 cans (each about 7 ounces) king crabmeat, drained or 1 pound fresh crabmeat
2 cans (each 1 pound) grapefruit sections, drained or 3 cups drained fresh grapefruit sections
Homemade mayonnaise

Cook artichokes according to package directions; drain; if whole, halve. Pour 1/4 cup of the Orange Dressing over them; cover and chill.

At serving time, arrange salad greens on a platter or on individual plates; add artichokes, crabmeat and grapefruit. Serve, passing remaining Orange Dressing and homemade mayonnaise.

Makes six servings.

ORANGE DRESSING
1/4 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon red wine vinegar
1/2 tablespoon lime juice
1/4 cup salad (not olive) oil
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon celery seed
1 tablespoon chopped chives
2 tablespoons minced sweet red pepper

Into a jar with a screw top turn all ingredients. Shake thoroughly. Chill. Shake again before serving. Makes a little less than one cup.

SMOKED MEAT

Smoked, sliced ham, tongue, Canadian-style bacon and smoked pork shoulder roll (butt) come to a simple supper when they're served on hot squares of corn bread with mushroom soup thinned with milk and heated.

These meats listed may be purchased sliced, with the exception of smoked pork shoulder roll.

No Lumps In the Gravy

The best way to avoid lumps in gravy is to mix flour and water in a jar or covered cup by shaking before adding to pan drippings. Stir the gravy constantly while adding flour-water mixture.

Do let the gravy cook for a few minutes after all ingredients are mixed to avoid a "raw" taste which results from improper blending and cooking.

A SALAD luncheon plate that's as pretty to the eye as it is good to the palate. It is shown with a choice of three different real mayonnaise dressings. The lettuce leaf bowls and plates are reproductions of the famous "lettuce leaf" pattern, now considered collector's items.

Try Salad for Hot Weather Lunch

Whether you are entertaining friends, eating alone or feeding the family, a salad plate is a wise hot weather choice. For a luncheon party, consider a salad buffet and let the guests serve themselves. Plan a menu that piques the appetite both in taste and in looks; and to dress the components of the salad plate, offer a choice of three distinctly different dressings each made with mayonnaise.

Salad Luncheon Plate

2 to 3 heads western iceberg lettuce
4 avocados, peeled and halved
4 cups cooked shrimp, peeled

1 cup celery slices
32 spears cooked asparagus, chilled
16 marinated artichoke hearts
Cherry tomatoes
Choice of Mexicali, Jade or Golden Dressing
Crisp lettuce in plastic bag or wrap. Cut into wedges or chunks. Mix shrimp and celery; stuff avocado. Place lettuce, stuffed avocado, asparagus and artichokes on plate. Garnish with cherry tomatoes. Serve with choice of dressings. Makes 8 luncheon salads.

Mexicali Dressing

1 cup real mayonnaise

1-3 cup tomato juice
1 cup chopped, peeled and seeded tomato (1 medium)
¼ cup chopped Italian sweet pepper
¼ teaspoon snipped basil leaves
1 teaspoon fresh or frozen chopped chives
¼ teaspoon seasoned pepper
Mix mayonnaise and tomato juice thoroughly. Add and stir in tomato, sweet pepper, basil, chives and seasoned pepper. Chill. Makes about 2 cups.

Jade Dressing

½ cup real mayonnaise
½ cup dairy sour cream

1 tablespoon chopped fresh dill weed
1 teaspoon lime juice
Dash onion salt
¼ cup milk
Mix mayonnaise and sour cream thoroughly. Add chopped dill, lime juice and onion salt. Gradually stir in milk and blend well. Chill at least two hours. Makes about one cup.

Golden Dressing

2 tablespoons corn oil
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon finely chopped celery

2 teaspoons curry powder
1 chicken bouillon cube
½ cup boiling water
1 cup real mayonnaise
Heat corn oil in saucepan. Add onion, green pepper and celery. Sauté, stirring frequently, until onion is golden brown, about ten minutes. Stir in curry powder. Dissolve bouillon cube in boiling water. Stir into curried mixture. Remove from heat. Cool. Gradually stir into mayonnaise, blending well. Chill. Serve. Makes one and a half cups.

Pie As An Entree

Good morning, good cooks.
Pie is a wonderful dessert. Right? Right. Pie also makes a wonderful entree. Right? Right. And I'll give you proof positive of this fact.

HAMBURGER QUINCHE

1 pound ground chuck
1 cup thinly sliced onion
1 Tablespoon butter
3 Tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
one and three-fourths cup milk
2 eggs
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
1 (9-inch) unbaked pie shell

Saute the one pound ground chuck and the sliced onion in the tablespoon butter until onion is soft. Blend in the three tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper.

Blend the one and three-fourths cup milk, two eggs and Worcestershire sauce together. Add one cup of the cheese and combine with the meat mixture; pour into pastry shell. Sprinkle remaining cup of cheese over top.

Bake in preheated 425-degree oven for 20 to 35 minutes or until set. Let stand 10 to 15 minutes before cutting into wedges. Makes six servings.

Be sure to build up a high rim on your pie shell, for this filling is generous.

PIE CRUST

1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 cup shortening
1 Teaspoon salt
2 to 3 Tablespoons water

Sift the one and one-half cups flour with the one teaspoon salt into a bowl. Cut in the one-half cup shortening. Sprinkle with the 2 to 3 tablespoons cold water. Toss lightly with a fork. Place on waxed paper. Knead 3 times. Press into a ball. Let stand at room temperature 15 to 20 minutes. Roll out between pieces of waxed paper. This amount makes one pie shell.

For a pie with a top increase the amounts thus:
2 cups flour
two-thirds cup shortening
1 teaspoon salt
4 to 5 Tablespoons water

This next entree is easy to make and you can keep the main ingredients on your shelf, for a meal in a hurry.

SALMON PIE

1 large can red salmon
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1 Tablespoon lemon juice
1 Tablespoon minced onion three-fourths teaspoon salt pepper
2 Tablespoons chopped parsley
1 cup cooked peas
1 9-inch pie shell and top

In a bowl combine the one-fourth cup mayonnaise, one tablespoon each lemon juice and minced onion, three-fourths teaspoon salt, pepper, two tablespoons chopped parsley. Drain the salmon, remove bones, and separate into small portions. Add to the mayonnaise mixture along with the cup of cooked peas. Blend and pour into unbaked pie shell. Cover with top crust and cut vents for steam to escape. Bake in 425-degree oven about 35 minutes.

I AM THE FIRST PERSON to sing the praises of the cake mixes. I love 'em. But I also like to make a cake from scratch. And I think every cook should be able to do it. So if you want the youngest cook in your home to try her hand at cake baking why not let her make this very simple one-egg cake? It makes a generous cake and topped with this fudge frosting will be a source of pride for the junior baker.

ONE-EGG CAKE

2 cups flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
one-third cup shortening
one cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
three-fourths teaspoon vanilla
three-fourths cup milk

Sift the two cups flour, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon salt together. Cream the one-third cup shortening and gradually add the one cup sugar, creaming as you add. Blend in the beaten egg and three-fourths teaspoon vanilla and beat well. Add the sifted dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with the three-fourths cup milk, blending well after each addition. Pour into well-greased and lightly floured 9-inch pan. Bake in 350-degree oven about 30 minutes or until top springs back when lightly touched. Allow to cool in pan and frost.

FUDGE FROSTING

2 cups brown sugar
1/2 cup milk
1 1/2 Tablespoons butter
2 squares chocolate
1 1/2 Tablespoons syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
6 marshmallows, cut up

Place the two cups brown sugar, one-half cup milk, one and one-half tablespoons butter, two squares chocolate and one tablespoon syrup in a sauce pan and place over medium heat. Cook, stirring until the butter and chocolate melt and the ingredients are well blended. Then allow to boil until it reaches the soft-ball stage (234-F.). Remove from heat and stir in the marshmallows just until they dissolve. Cool, add vanilla and beat until right consistency to spread. If frosting gets hard add a few drops of hot water to keep it spreadable.

EUGENE AIELLO, city manager in South San Francisco more than 12 years, completed his last day as head of the city's administrative staff last Friday. Aiello, who announced his resignation last month, will remain in the manager's post officially for another month, but plans to spend the remainder of his tenure vacationing. He has not revealed his future plans, but indicated he intends to continue living in South San Francisco.

Use of Income Tax Return Challenged

Two South San Francisco attorneys filed suit in Superior Court yesterday challenging the county assessor's practice of using state income tax returns to check on personal property tax declarations.

The lawsuit states that the Revenue and Taxation Code requires assessments to be based on actual cash value, whereas the assessment in this case are based solely on income tax returns "which are not prepared for the purposes of establishing actual cash value."

Estes said, however, that the State Board of Equalization authorizes the use of income tax forms, which are provided routinely for the purpose by the Franchise Tax Board.

The law firm has appealed an "escaped assessment" levied by Assessor Jack Estes for the 1967-68 and 1968-69 fiscal years and a hearing is pending before the County Board of Assessment Appeals. Lyons and Morgan obtained from Superior Judge Frank W. Rose an order requiring Estes to appear in court at 9 a.m. September 12 to show cause why he should not be enjoined from using income tax returns.

Personal property forms are sent annually to all business firms in the county and a tax is levied on the basis of the completed forms. Periodic audits and spot checks are made by Estes' office.

Estes said the South San Francisco law firm failed to file any reports at all in the years 1964, 1965 and 1966 as to the value of their office furniture and furnishings and law library. Penalty assessments of $2,500 for 1964 and $5,000 for each of the succeeding two years were levied. The firm filed statements for 1967-68, listing property having an assessed value of $2,285, and for 1968-69, listing assets with an assessed value of $1,990. Estes said, however, that a check of the firm's income tax returns for those years indicated an "escaped" assessment, including a 25 percent penalty, of $4,810 for 1967-68 and $4,545 for the current year. The taxes and interest on those amounts, Estes said, are $388.82 and $345.65. It is the payment of these amounts that the law firm is appealing.

The lawsuit states that the Revenue and Taxation Code requires assessments to be based on actual cash value, whereas the assessment in this case are based solely on income tax returns "which are not prepared for the purposes of establishing actual cash value."

Estes said, however, that the State Board of Equalization authorizes the use of income tax forms, which are provided routinely for the purpose by the Franchise Tax Board.

Sentenced To a Year

Sigifili Taulua, 42, of 116 San Felipe Avenue, San Bruno, was sentenced yesterday to a year in county jail on his plea of guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

Superior Judge J. A. Branson made the jail term a condition of three years' probation. He allowed Taulua credit for seven weeks served in jail awaiting disposition of the case.

Taulua, a native of Samoa, was originally charged with murder in the July 9 death of William C. Hagedohn, 59, of 291 Milton Avenue, San Bruno. Hagedohn was injured in a brawl in a San Bruno bar.

Judge Branson recommended that Taulua be allowed to serve his jail sentence at one of the county jail honor camps.

Hitchhiker Robs, Beats S.S.F. Couple

A young couple from South San Francisco, in Chelmsford, Mass., job hunting, have told police that a hitchhiker robbed them, beat the husband and stole their car.

Gordon and Linda Kocher, both 24, of 427 Beach Street, said they had picked up the man near the intersection of routes 128 and 3 in Braintree and driven him to Chelmsford Friday night.

They said that as the man was leaving the car, he hit Kocher in the face with what appeared to be an iron bar, took $107 from him, forced Mrs. Kocher out of the car and drove away with their belongings.

Kocher was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lowell where several stitches were taken to close his wound.

Greenwood Misquoted Last Week

A report in last week's Post erroneously indicated that Jefferson Elementary School District Supt. Frank Greenwood's budgetary recommendations would "appreciably affect" transportation at Abraham Lincoln, Christopher Columbus, Fernando Rivera, George Washington and Westlake schools.

These schools will not be "appreciably affected" by the recommendations presented Tuesday night, according to the superintendent.

High Cuisine of China For the Peninsula

SEVERAL NEW ASPECTS of Chinese dining will be introduced to the Peninsula when the GOLDEN PAVILION RESTAURANT opens in Los Altos the latter part of October. Occupying the former Marco Polo Motel, which will become the Golden Pavilion Motor Inn, "Six Classic Cuisines of China" will be featured. COLONEL GEORGE CHOW, president of the firm and originator of Ming's restaurant in Palo Alto, reports that an extensive $250,000 remodeling and redecorating program is now in progress. The new LAVA PIT on Peninsula Avenue (near Woodlake) is just about as intimate as a cocktail lounge should be. Co-owner JIM MORGAN personally supervised the interior decoration of the plush Polynesian lounge, which includes a piano bar and a cozy fireplace.

WINSOME HELEN HART is the featured pianobar attraction in the lounge of South San Francisco's NEW SOUTHERN restaurant Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Seldom a day goes by that the VILLA HOTEL isn't registering a celebrity for lodging. Names in the news headquarter at this swank San Mateo hotel. It's centrally located and offers every modern convenience — from barber and beauty shop to 24 hour breakfast, luncheon, dinner and room service. Although known primarily as a first-class dinner house, SEBASTIAN'S of Belmont has also established a considerable reputation for its luncheon business. With local business executives in mind, a selective luncheon menu is presented. The adjoining lounge is also a comfortable mid-day retreat for men on the go. One of the most liked desserts at PHIL LEHR'S STEAKERY after a big steak dinner is PHIL'S Black Cherry Cheesecake. It's brandy-flamed right at your table and a truly gourmet dessert.

A NUMBER OF MEN from Chicago told DON DIANDA that the dinner they had just enjoyed at DOROS during their stay in San Francisco was the best they had on a tour of U.S. cities. Comedian MOREY AMSTERDAM, whose wit is known to millions of TV viewers familiar with the long-running Dick Van Dyke Show, was a dinner guest last week at South San Francisco's HOLIDAY INN, and traded a few quips with Food and Beverage Manager CLAUDE SCHROEDER. The entire staff at BRUNO'S in the Mission District is sprouting badges reading "Faremo Pin-e Meglio" which, translated, reads "We try harder." Nothing like keeping the customers happy with great food and plenty of service. Stopped in ROBERT GATES STORE in Burlingame for a necktie, the other a.m., and also wound up with a few extra bundles — thanks to the alertness of JACK GATES and BUDD REININGHAUS. This smart shop has everything — including a staff of well-trained sales personnel.

TOURISTS from all over the world flock to FINOCCHIO'S in San Francisco every summer to see some of the greatest female impersonators in show business on stage here four times every night. That Finocchio's is on the "must" list of most tourists is indicated by the fact that an overflow of fans have to be seated on stage several nights a week. Among the headliners are LUCIAN, the "male Sophie Tucker," and one-time burlesque star FRANCIS BLAIR. FRED and MICKIE FINN, along with their dynamic bunch of funster musicians, are currently in the 750-seat Circus Room of JOHN ASCUAGA'S NUGGET through September 18. The action-packed show also presents the Nugget's own talented troupers, BERTHA and TINA, the amazing elephants. For romantic dinner-dancing, the CAVA COMBO performs nightly in the luxurious lounge of Millbrae's THUNDERBOLT HOTEL. CHEZ MICHEL dinner reservations may be made by contacting Maitre d' FERNAND WAGNER.

LEW LEHR'S STEAK HOUSE in the Marina is on the exclusive list of San Francisco restaurants recommended by Avis Rent-A-Car. Top Avis executives dine several times at prospective restaurants before putting them on the "recommended" list. Friday and Saturday nights have been designated as "Bavarian Nights" at Hayward's HALL OF HORNS. Manager HANS GRAHLMANN provides appropriate live entertainment in keeping with the theme. Festivities begin around 9 p.m. ORESTE'S, long one of San Francisco's landmarks of good food, specializes in Italian dishes prepared Tuscan-style. One and all are invited to inspect the restaurant's brand new furnishings. Two groups of American Field Service workers, returning from the Far East, gathered last week for a two-day seminar at the INTERNATIONAL INN, South San Francisco. Among other groups utilizing the banquet facilities were Northern Pacific and Wilson Sporting Goods, reported Manager DOUG YOUNG.

Dodd Baker Liberace Pupil

Highly recommend a visit to the RICKSHA LOUNGE, a glittering celebrity club in San Francisco's Chinatown, where DODD BAKER, the keyboard expert who received his "Beer Barrel Polka" training from the great Liberace, has created quite a stir since his Wednesday opening. Dodd's infectious smile, personality singing voice, and piano styling are cause for many new faces at the Ricksha.

Vince Licata Visits Tiny Tim

At this writing, my good friend VINCE LICATA is probably chatting with his new friend TINY TIM in the swimming pool area of CAESARS PALACE in Las Vegas. (There's a question of whether Tiny Tim swims). Vince took off on Tuesday — and won't be heard from until after Labor Day (Tuesday September 3) — VINCE'S SEAFOOD and ITALIAN Restaurant will not be open Sunday and Monday, September 1 and 2.

Record Breaking Year For Park Avenue Tours

All former PARK AVENUE TOURS traveling records to Lake Tahoe (South Shore), Nevada, have been shattered this year, and that means in all departments — from driving to Tahoe, going by bus, summer bus charters, and regular daily departures from various GREYHOUND BUS Depots. Look for Park Avenue Tours boss, JERRY BARBER, and his wife, "BARB," to branch out into new travel fields in the coming months.

Atherton's COTE D'AZUR Continental restaurant is a much-chosen rendezvous spot for celebrities from all over. Patrons sitting around the pianobar are tickled pink when a show biz personality sings at random to the accompaniment of bartender JOE BENDANELLO on the accordion.

Now under new management, Burlingame's ALEXI'S ZORBA, the Greek supper club which caused such a sensation when it opened a year ago, still provides Peninsula with authentic Greek food, dancing and entertainment.

JIM BELL, eldest son and co-owner of the Bell family's SKYLARK restaurant, will soon be leaving for a well-deserved vacation. Seems his travel plans lead to Las Vegas, where he has a "sure" method of winning. At least, that's what he was explaining to several of his lounge patrons.

Nick's Restaurants A Stone's Throw From The Pacific

NICK GUST, Mayor of Pacifica and "dean" of his two restaurants — NICK'S and the new MOONRAKER, reports business brisk in both Rockaway eating houses. Located a stone's throw from the beach, the restaurants' new lighting system, which gives diners a spectacular view of the breaking waves, is causing much dining comment.

Gloria 'Explodes' Nightly at The Sinaloa Cantina

GLORIA, the "A to Z" bomb who "explodes" nightly except Sunday at the SINALOA, is one of the greatest entertainers to ever perform at LUZ GARCIA's Powell Street Mexican supper club. Gloria's "jet propelled" gyrations are backed by MARIO at the bongos. Balance of the all-Latin revue is top drawer entertainment.

FOSTER'S ORIGINAL PANCAKE AND CHICKEN HOUSE in the Hillsdale area must have some kind of a record for employing a host of pretty blonde waitresses. Last Sunday morning's breakfast count was six with flaxen hair and eyes of blue. However, it must be pointed out that superior food and excellence of service is what really counts at this well-regarded restaurant.

ANGELO LAZZARI, who was maitre d' at one of Atherton's fanciest French restaurants for many years and ranked as one of the most charming hosts, is now at the BALKAN VILLAGE. Put yourself in his good hands when you dine.

GEORGE CHRISTOPHER, a former Mayor of the city of San Francisco, is still one of the regular lunchers or diners at TOMMY'S JOINT, just as he was when he was SF's chief executive.

Dennis IV Now Appearing Capri Room A. Sabella's

The talented DENNIS IV are set for a Tuesday, September 3, opening in A. SABELLA'S Capri Room. The well-traveled group, currently making the Bay Area home, includes DENNIS LARSON at the organ; ARLINE MORRIS, vocalist; PETE RUGIERO, guitar, and FRITZ KASTEN, drums. It was a smart move on the part of restaurant owner LUCIEN SABELLA to book this much-in-demand foursome, which replaced JOE MARCELLINO and his orchestra, long-time Capri Room favorites. Dinner-dancing Tuesday through Saturday; open seven days a week serving luncheon and dinner.

Kitty Carr "Sparks" The Fireside Lounge

KITTY CARR, the "Nude Bedroom Model," now headlines the action-packed lineup on the marquee at the FIRESIDE LOUNGE. PHIL MAITA is up to his old tricks of discovering unknown talent and directing it to stardom.

George Samuels "Brings Home The Salmon"

Just received word that GEORGE "Deep Sea" SAMUELS, who "anchors" at SCOTTY CAMPBELL'S, is back from another fishing excursion to the waters of Mexico. This means he must have gifted his petite friend MARY LOU FRANCIS, "skipper" of this Redwood City restaurant, some fresh salmon. As your BRIGHT-LIGHTER itemed some time ago, most admirers bring candy, flowers and jewelry, but Mr. Samuels, a "salt of the sea," brings salmon. Different, to say the least.

For an inexpensive, yet exotic meal, try the Japanese cuisine at TOSHIO KIYOHARA'S IRIFUNE restaurant. It's as authentic as a meal in Tokyo.

Back to School

WELCOME BACK FOLKS — The Labor Day weekend is over and most of us are back (alive) behind our desks. And the kids will soon be back behind their desks, so don't give up yet all you Moms out there. It's been an exciting summer alright! The Republicans had their national convention down in Jackie Gleason Land and nominated Richard Nixon and Whatisname. And up in Daley's City (not to be confused with Daly City) the Democrats nominated Hubert H. Humphrey and Whatisname.

Less than a week after the Chicago Thing, the circus moves westward to the Cow Palace (From Daley City to Daly City?) But the kids will soon be back in school, and that's good news for Mom.

Up on Eastmoor Avenue, (or is it DOWN on Eastmoor Avenue) there was a big slide that will probably cost $250,000 to repair. The soils "experts" huddle almost daily since the street decided to disappear and have come up with some mighty interesting facts: Some "experts" blame developer Henry Doelger for cutting into the steep hillside in preparation for some apartments for weakening the hillside. But other "experts" point their manicured fingers at the Jefferson High School District and shout "they spend $14,000 a year to water the lawns around the Westmoor High School."

This knowledgeable (but always humble) writer will interpret that last accusation thusly: All that water soaks through the sandy top stuff until it meets the clay stuff underneath. This water runs along this clay stuff and builds up over the months, presumably on top of the Old San Pedro Road (now Eastmoor), until one day ... whoosh ... goodbye Eastmoor Avenue.

Least we forget, The City is also the recipient of angered finger pointing because of their connection with Daly City. Some "experts" claim someone possibly was negligent way back when for doing something that contributed to the past condition. Confused? Good!

After intensive studies and numerous meetings the Eastmoor Avenue Circus drags on, with fingers being pointed at the City, at the school district, at the developer, at the soils en-

(Daly City Librarian)

A Hot Day in Pa.

It was a hot afternoon in Philadelphia. Debates were thick and heated. Slowly General Washington rose to speak. "Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest can repair," he said, "the event is in the hands of God."

It seems to me the time has come for Americans to notice that the standards of 1787 are still flying.

The so-called American conscience last year prompted private spending for "worthy causes" of more than 14 billion dollars. More than three fourths of this huge sum came from private individuals. The rest was donated by business firms and foundations.

In seven years 14 million Americans have left poverty behind. The number of American families with an income of $7,000 or more annually has risen from 22 per cent in 1950 to 55 per cent in 1966. And, last year the median family income reached $8,000.

The proportion of families earning $5,000 or less has dropped from 58 per cent in 1950 to 28 per cent in 1968. Socially and politically, the result is that the middle class is becoming the dominant fact of life in today's America.

This information is found in an article in the U.S. News and World Report entitled "The Good Things About The U.S. Today."

"Far from being a sick society," the authors write, "Americans in the majority are showing themselves to be strong and morally responsible."

Last year Gallup Polls found that 45 per cent of all Americans attend church during a typical week, and 70 per cent thought religion very important. Furthermore, despite the publicity that has been given the "God is dead" theory, 97 per cent of adult Americans indicated a belief in the existence of God.

A New York advertising firm, sur-geers, and at some idiot who went through the police barricades and almost tumbled into the hole. All the while, heavy equipment is making monumental gains in fixing that near-disaster (on H. Doelger's personal orders). Right now it looks like a month-long project. Alright, alright, stop pointing those fingers at me.

Don't worry Mom, the kids can take another route to school.

Down the street from the Eastmoor Episode, Charles Lewkowicz is the listed owner of a service station. He is the son of Daly City Treasurer Joseph Lewkowicz. He filed suit against the city (plus some others) for $1 million, charging his business has suffered as a result of traffic routing. One local notable noted "that's a lotta gas."

Treasurer Lewkowicz went out of town. He left on Tuesday (August 19) the day before the municipal employees strike. The Shadow found out it was one of those "spur of the moment" vacations. The fact that the City Treasurer decided to take a vacation while his able assistant, Marion Lasky, was already on leave didn't stop those checks from leaving the City Finance Department. You see, folks, the checks require two signatures: Mr. Lewkowicz and-or the assistant's and-or Finance Director Robert Hossli. Now, with two of those three absent we wondered who was signing those checks (or) if they were even going out. This is what we found out:

The Finance Department uses a facsimile machine about the size of a telephone to sign all payout checks. Someone places a check in one end and out pops a signed instrument at the other. Clever!

Mr. Lewkowicz checks over the automatically signed checks. He is expected back in his office at City Hall today — two weeks and about 100 automatically signed checks since he started his vacation.

And then there's all that last minute shopping for back to school clothes for the kids. Steady Mom, another couple of days and school starts.

Mayor Joe Alioto wants to tax us all for working in San Francisco, and living in San Mateo County. It's been a mighty interesting summer, indeed.

Bring 'Em Back Alive

The AAA "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" campaign and subsequent analysis of fatal accidents in California over the Independence Day weekend revealed that 65 persons were killed in 60 accidents between 6 p.m., July 3 and midnight July 7 — an average of 15 per day. This is no higher than a comparable non-holiday weekend.

In releasing the preliminary results of the in-depth survey, Neal Garrison, executive vice president of the California State Automobile Association, reported, "Most of the fatal accidents during that period occurred on local streets, close to home, and did not involve holiday trips at all."

"Half of the fatal accidents happened on city streets, one-third were on county roads, and only one-sixth were on freeways," Garrison said.

The study, conducted jointly by the California State Automobile Association and the Automobile Club of Southern California, was repeated for the Labor Day weekend. The combined data served as a basis for a comprehensive profile of the two holidays to be released later.

The 60 fatal accidents investigated involved 17 motor vehicles striking others in traffic, 19 vehicles running off the roadway, 11 vehicles striking pedestrians, three vehicles overturning, one striking a fixed object and nine were motorcycle accidents.

Twenty-one of the fatal accidents happened on two-lane roads, 22 on four-lane undivided highways, nine on freeways and two on private property.

Driver error was reported as a contributing factor in 38 deaths, possible equipment failure was noted in four, road conditions could have contributed to three and pedestrian faults were factors in nine.

Thirty-two of those killed were under 25 years old, twenty-seven were between 25 and 54, and six were over 55.

"This information," Garrison said, "will be studied carefully to determine where improvements can be made in the three main areas affecting traffic safety — the driver, the vehicle and the roadway."

"The aim of our entire 'Bring 'Em Back Alive!' program is to help make the everyday motorist's journey both safer and more enjoyable," Garrison concluded.

Unwanted Credit

QUESTION: What should I do with the unordered credit cards I have been receiving?

ANSWER: All such cards should be cut up into small pieces and thrown away if you do not intend to use them. You are liable by law to pay for all purchases made in your name so the consequences are obvious if your card should fall into the hands of a dishonest person.

QUESTION: I just received a letter saying I had won a free wig. What should I do?

ANSWER: Be careful that you do not sign anything. We have had complaints of wig sales that began as supposedly free offers. Some were cheap wigs and the hair fell out.

QUESTION: What is the difference between regular and commercial carpeting?

ANSWER: We continue to have public misconception over the word "commercial" in connection with carpet offers. While there are some types used for commercial jobs, factually there are no standards, no specifications which describe such covering. All types of carpet are laid on commercial jobs including some very inexpensive types. The phrase should not be accepted as a guide for high quality.

QUESTION: Is most of the BBB work the result of complaints from people who have been cheated?

ANSWER: No, 90 per cent of our work load is inquiries. People call us to check on firms before investigating or spending money.

QUESTION: I ordered a remodeling job and signed a contract for $1500. The workmanship is not up to standard, in my opinion, and I have offered to pay the firm $800. The firm refuses to accept my offer.

ANSWER: Unless you can prove non-compliance, you owe $1500 as stipulated in your contract.

Closing In on Hurricanes

Defense against the force of a hurricane is a near-hopeless task. All one can do, if adequate warning of its arrival is received, is to take simple precautions such as seeking shelter in a substantial building, and then hope for the best.

But there was a time when even warnings were not possible. Statistics compiled over the years do show a lessening of death and injury as warning systems have been improved.

Most prognosticators look upon 1968 as a banner hurricane year, and it is therefore not surprising that all-out efforts are being made this year to strengthen warning devices.

What contributes to weather forecasters' alarm about hurricane prospects this year is that the 1968 season started with a bang — with three full-fledged storms in June.

Only three times previously since records have been kept has this happened, and in two of those three years — 1886 and 1936 — the number of storms was two to three times the normal average.

This year the first step could be taken toward the day when man is able to do more against the hurricane than take shelter. More than 200 scientists and aviators of Operation Stormfury are in readiness at Roosevelt Roads Naval Station, Puerto Rico, to fly into the heart of a hurricane.

While instruments on board their planes will record data about the storm, crystals of silver iodide will be dropped to see if this lessens the storm's fury. In theory, the chemical reaction resulting from the seeding will release heat.

This in turn should reduce atmospheric pressures, lowering winds near the center of the storm. Scientists are frank to admit they do not know what overall effect this will have on the storm, except that the pattern could be changed radically.

This could turn out to be an exciting hurricane year in a way history has not recorded before.

Averages Million Dollars A Laugh

The economics of show business are mind-bending. Film information in my daily contact with the industry, but I wonder if the public, who is now being asked to plunk down as much as $3.50 for a movie ticket and $12.00 for a Broadway show, know where their dollars are going.

GROSSES: "The Odd Couple" grossed over three million dollars in 14 weeks at Radio City Music Hall, New York.

STAGE SALARIES: Zero Mostel, cast in a musical based on Bertold Brecht's short play, "The Exception and the Rule," next season on Broadway. He will receive a guarantee of $5000 a week against 10 per cent of the gross receipts plus 10 per cent of the profits plus a share of the album royalties. Jerome Robbins, will stage and choreograph, with score by Leonard Bernstein, lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and book by John Guare.

PRODUCER: Executive Pice President Joseph Sugar's first year salary by Cinerama Inc. was published at $130,000, raised to $143,000 the second year and $156,000 for the third. Wonder what the Executive president makes?

GIFT: Embassy Pictures founder Joseph E. Levine has pledged $100,000 to Yale University for its two-year cinematic course with the understanding that anything worthwhile produced there, will be given commercial release by his company and the profits will revert back to the course.

MARKETING: The International arena has become the major film companies most important market. Fifty-five per cent of American picture grosses come from overseas. It counts out at about $270,000,000 a year in remittable funds.

TV SALARIES: Lucille Ball's producing company has signed contracts with her own son and daughter, giving them $17,500 for their first year and $21,500 for the second.

New Faces

Major changes in committee leadership in the ninety-first Congress are certain because of retirements. This will be true even if the Democrats maintain control of Congress after the November 5 elections.

The most important change will be in the Senate where the retirement of Carl Hayden, Arizona Democrat, will leave open the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee.

Next in line for the job is Richard B. Russell of Georgia — that is, if Russell is willing to give up his chairmanship of the prestigious Armed Services Committee.

If Russell decides to stay with Armed Services, Senator Hayden's job would fall to Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana. In that case, the chairmanship of the Agriculture Committee, currently held by Senator Ellender, would be vacant.

If Senator Russell should take over the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee, the man to succeed him as head of the Armed Services Committee would be Senator John Stennis of Mississippi.

Commuter Tax Is Bribe

Dear Editor:

In the nine years we have lived in Daly City, we have had only slight improvements in the straggle transportation system, which is not the fault of Northgate Transit co. who are doing the best they can.

Our taxes have risen steadily to $22 a month, or $264 a year more than when we bought our home, and are still rising.

We have had to fight to get what we felt was needed in this young community. But we got some important things accomplished eventually.

There has been and is no convenience by walking distance from my home to a bank, shopping center, post office, or a public library. We have to drive or hoof it.

The hospital built to accommodate Daly City, can't be used unless your doctors (whose offices are usually out of Daly City) are affiliated with Mary's Help Hospital.

And despite the fog and wind we go on living in Daly City, because it is close to our sister city San Francisco, where my husband makes a living as a laborer.

Now our sister city tells us we can't work side by side with her unless we bring bribes, neatly named "the commuter tax."

Smoked salmon or herring for Alioto's lunch. I think it just plain stinks. If we can't earn a living here, we may as well move elsewhere, leaving Daly City and San Francisco to their hassles with fog and wind and politics. There are many others who feel as I do. San Francisco may become the first Ghost Town equipped with Rapid Transit.

For all the great things Mayor Alioto has done since he's been in office, he sure toppled it with a whooper when he came up with the "Commuter Tax."

Alioto and Reagan seem to have a way of hitting the people below the belt in their desperation to make good their campaign promises to red pencil the budget. But it's more than the budget that's going to be penciled red by their next election date.

Margaret O. Richardson
Daly City.

Editor, The Times:

Here is my answer to Mayor Alioto's commuter tax.

What one single item eats up the greatest portion of our dollar? Schools. How many people realize that the counties surrounding San Francisco are recipients of San Francisco's foster children? These children are placed in foster homes, in our counties, attend our schools, use our teachers, and we pay for it with our property taxes. I say, if San Francisco can tax us for working in San Francisco, let's refuse to license any foster parents that want to take in children from San Francisco. Also, let's give San Francisco three months to take back every foster child sent to our counties and let them foot the bill we have all been paying. I, for one, am sick and tired of every politician trying to get a bite out of my check.
